

ADVOCATES

Presents

Robert Whitaker

MAD IN AMERICA UP TO NOW

Award winning journalist, Robert Whitaker will be discussing the state of contemporary mental health in a free presentation and discussion on Thursday, December 8th from 2-4pm at 1881 Worcester Road, Framingham.

Robert Whitaker has won numerous awards as a journalist covering medicine and science, including the George Polk Award for Medical Writing and a National Association for Science Writers' Award for best magazine article. In 1998, he co-wrote a series on psychiatric research for the Boston Globe that was a finalist for the Pulitzer Prize for Public Service. Anatomy of an Epidemic won the 2010 Investigative Reporters and Editors book award for best investigative journalism.

Mad In America was named by Discover Magazine as one of the best science books of 2002; the American Library Association named it one of the best history books of that year.

Anatomy of an Epidemic won the 2010 Investigative Reporters and Editors award for best investigative journalism (books category.)

ASL Interpreters are confirmed for this exciting event!

Registration is required.

Register with Francesca Santoro at fsantoro@advocatesinc.org or (508) 628-6442.